Two arrested in Mysuru for crimes in Bengaluru

An elderly man's murder case and a case of blackmailing women

Bengaluru / Mysuru, Aug. 21 (MTY&BCT)- Two persons have been arrested in Mysuru by the Bengaluru Police in connection with two separate crimes that took place in the State Capital.

While in one case, a 20-year-old youth, a college dropout, was arrested from Kuvempunagar along with his friend from Hassan for the alleged murder of his grandfather, in another case, a 30-year-old youth from T. Narasipur, an employee of a private firm, for allegedly recording videos of relatives and friends with a spy camera and blackmailing them for sexual favours.

The Yelahanka Police arrested 20-year-old Jayanth alias Balle from Kuvempunagar in Mysuru, and his associate 22-year-old Yaseen, from Gorur in Hassan district on charges of murdering 70-year-old C. Puttaiah, Jayanth's grandfather.

Accused Jayanth (Mysuru) and Yaseen (Hassan).

Accused Mahesh (Mysuru) and hidden camera.

Puttaiah was a retired lab assistant of Kendriya Vidyalaya and a resident of 6th Cross, Surabhi Layout. Though Puttaiah had four sons, he lived alone after his wife's death in 2017 and his children used to visit him often.

Business loan surety

According to the Police, Jayanth wanted to start a business and desperately needed money and was planning to apply for a business loan. He sought help from his grandfather Puttaiah, for a share of their ancestral property for the required surety for the business loan.

However, Puttaiah did not entertain Jayanth's desperate pleas and refused to divide his property among his four children due to some differences. Jayanth later plotted to kill his grandfather and sought the help of Yaseen. Jayanth's father P. Chandru is the second son of Puttaiah.

An insider job

On the intervening night of Aug. 16 and 17, Jayanth and his friend gained entry to Puttaiah's house and bludgeoned Puttaiah to death. They removed the gold ring of the deceased and ransacked the house to make the crime appear like murder for gain. After the crime, Jayanth and his friend fled from the back door.

40,000 flower pots, 5,000 foliage plants at Dasara Flower Show

Free entry for public on September 26, the first day

Mysuru, Aug. 21 (MTY&SSM)- The countdown for a grand Dasara-2022 festival has begun with preparations for various activities happening across the city.

Arrangements and background works are underway for the Dasara Fruits and Flower Show, scheduled to be held from Sept. 26 to Oct. 5 at Kuppanna Park. The Dasara Flower Show is happening after a gap of two years, following the restrictions imposed due to COVID-19 pandemic. This year's Flower Show will exhibit various cut flowers including French Marigold Vinca Marigold, Salvia, Aster, Antirrhinum, Celosia, Chrysanthemum, Dalia, Dianthus, Zinnia, Sunflower, Cockscomb, Petunia, Pentas, Roses, Chrysanthemum, Anthurium, Poinsettia, Kalanchoe, Curcuma, Orchids, Rex begonia, Bougainvillea etc.,

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, Horticulture Department Deputy Director K. Rudresh said that sealed tenders for the Flower Show have been called which will end on Sept. 3 after which the tender will be awarded. The theme of the flower show will be decided later, he added.

"We have already planted saplings in over 40,000 flower pots over the past three months. More than 5,000 foliage plants are being grown at various Horticulture Department nurseries," he added.

"As we do not get any Dasara grants from the Government for the Flower Show, we are dependent on the tender amount. The tenders will be opened on Sept. 6 and full-fledged preparations will start later. Preparations like cleaning and painting works are being carried out at the Kuppanna Park now and the Glass House is being set up for the Flower Show," he said.

Pointing out that there will be free entry for the public on the first day of the Show, Rudresh said that the concept and this year's highlight for the flower show will be decided only after chairing a meeting with the top officials and after the tender process is finished.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

A tryst with adversity taught me that even the best of us struggle with ourselves and the world at one point or another and to censure someone without knowing and understanding the part they are traversing in their arduous journey is warped and cruel. The flightless ostrich, the world's largest bird, has three stomachs, and its eggs are the largest of any living bird. Deprived of teeth, ostriches swallow pebbles to grind their food and at any given point an adult ostrich could carry about a kilogram of stones in its mouth!

Firstly, ostriches do not really bury their heads in the sand: in the face of a predicament, the bird takes cover by placing their necks close to the ground in an attempt to become less conspicuous. Their feathers fuse well with sandy soil and, and it might appear, from a distance that they have buried their heads in the sand.

Secondly, even if ostriches did bury their heads in the sand, what do we know of what this amazing, gigantic, and unique bird sees in the sand? American comedian Lenny Bruce says, "Faith is to the human what sand is to the ostrich." And this is no laughing matter.

Who knows what hidden gems, what solace, what wisdom this astounding creature finds in the sand?

Perhaps, after its interaction with the sand, the ostrich comes out better poised, wiser and more in equilibrium with itself and its surroundings? The less we know of the ostrich the more we define it with what we consider its weakest moment.

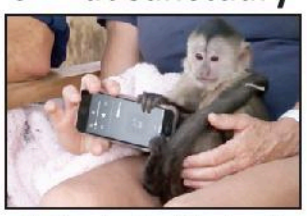
Footballer brings down a plane with a shot!

Asuncion: A football player from Paraguay named Roberto Gabriel Trigo, is probably the only man alive who can say that he had shot down a small plane with a football. The legend of the football kick that brought down a plane has been doing the rounds through the locker rooms of Paraguayan football clubs for six decades. Some say it happened during an official game, others that it was during a practice, but they all credit the same man – Roberto Gabriel Trigo.

He was 17 years old at the time and playing as a right back for the now-defunct General Genes football club of Asuncion. Annoyed by a small plane flying low over the local football field, Trigo allegedly kicked the ball outwards, hitting the aircraft's engine and causing it to crash in an open field, just 200 meters away.

Inquisitive monkey dials 911 at sanctuary



California: Sheriff's deputies responding to a 911 call from a wildlife sanctuary in California were surprised to discover the call had apparently been placed by an inquisitive capuchin monkey.

The San Luis Obispo County Sheriff's Office said in a Facebook post that dispatchers received a 911 call this week that quickly disconnected and attempts to call the number back were not answered. Deputies went to the source of the call, Paso wildlife sanctuary Zoo to You, but workers said they were unaware of any emergency calls placed from the facility. Deputies and zoo staff continued to investigate and were eventually able to identify the likely caller: a capuchin monkey named Route. The sheriff's office said Route had apparently got hold of a zoo cellphone kept in a golf cart and either dialed 911 or used the phone's emergency call function.

Collect water tax as per norms

Sir,

The Vani Vilas Water Works (VVWW) is keen in getting the new water meter installed where the old meters are not working. Since last three months, the water tax being collected is doubled and a fine of Rs. 180 is also raised against meters which are not working.

Of late, many residents have installed new meters during July-August 2022. Further, though the new meters are working properly, the VVWW has not stopped collecting fine and double the amount of tax as of 17.8.2022.

I request the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Commissioner and VVWW authorities to look into this matter and advise the concerned staff to stop collecting fine. Our request is to see whether new meters are installed and collect water tax as per norms.

Step-by-step guide to link Voter ID with Aadhaar card

New Delhi, Aug. 21- The Election Commission of India (ECI) has launched a drive to link Voter Identity cards with Aadhaar cards. As per the ECI, the aim of the exercise is to establish the identity of electors and authenticate entries in the electoral roll as well as to identify if the same person is registered in more than one constituency or more than once in the same constituency.

However, linking voter ID or Election Photo Identity Card (EPIC) with Aadhaar card is not mandatory. The ECI has clarified that no existing voter's name will be omitted from electoral list on the ground that Aadhaar number has not been submitted.

For linking Aadhaar card with EPIC online via mobile, the ECI has shared the following steps:

• The EPIC cardholder has to first download and install Voter Helpline App either from Google Play Store (Android users) or App store (iPhone users).

• After the installation is complete, open Voter Helpline App and click on "I agree" and then "Next". Then click on first option "Voter Registration", and then select "Electoral Authentication Form (Form6B)" and "Lets Start".

• Now, enter your mobile number and click on "send OTP". Enter OTP shared on mobile number and click on "Verify".

• After this, select the first option "Yes I have voter ID" and then click "Next". Now enter the "Voter ID (EPIC)" number, select the "State" and then click on "Fetch details" and "Proceed".

• Enter details shown on screen and click on "Next". Enter "Aadhaar Number", "Mobile number", "Place of Application" and then click "done." Form-6B Preview page will be displayed.

• Check details and click on "Confirm" for the final submission of Form-6B. After final confirmation Form-6B's reference number will be received.

• Form-6B is for voters to share their Aadhaar number with the ECI. It is also available online at nvsp.in

The move from the ECI to link voter ID with Aadhaar comes against the backdrop of The Election Laws (Amendment) Act, 2021, which was passed in Parliament in December last year. Act amends the Representation of the People Act, for allowing the linking of voter IDs with Aadhaar on a voluntary basis.

I am not used to birthday celebrations: Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa

Mysuru, Aug. 21 (PM&DM)- Maintaining that he is not used to birthday celebrations, acclaimed writer and Saraswathi Samman awardee Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa declared that this was his first public birthday and he was delighted that Sadvidya Educational Institutions, which is one of the top institutions of the city has chosen to honour him on his birthday.

He was speaking after being honoured by Sadvidya Educational institutions in association with District Kannada Sahitya Parishat, on the occasion of his 92nd birthday at Vivekananda Auditorium in Sadvidya Educational Institutions campus on N.S. Road here yesterday.

Pointing out that he was not sure about his actual date of birth, Dr. Bhyrappa said he only knows that he was born on a 'Guru Purnima' Day and Aug. 20 is his birth date as entered in his school and college records.

Recalling his School days, the veteran writer said that he smoked cigarettes for a few days after stealing them from his schoolmates. But he stopped it after being noticed and advised by his school teacher, he said adding that one teacher by name Yamunachar was the one who was responsible for his de-addiction from 'Nashya' during his college days. "Fortunately after leaving all those habits early, I don't drink even coffee or tea now, which is the secret of my long and healthy life", he said adding that health is more important than anything else.

Writer Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa being felicitated by Sadvidya Educational institutions on his 92nd birthday celebration in city as District Kannada Sahitya Parishat President Maddikere Gopal and others look on.

Observing that High School and PUC is the turning point of a student's life, he asked the students to be more careful, concentrate and show dedication on studies, without diverting their attention on something else. Stressing on the need for proper guidance for students, he said that teachers must get equipped in this regard. Contending that all teachers should have some knowledge of literature, Dr. Bhyrappa reminisced on how Philosophy, which he had studied in College, helped him a lot in honing his literary skills and writings.

Asserting that our great epics like Ramayana and Mahabharata show how to lead a valued life, he said that literature too has a lot of moral and life-lessons, which should be studied.

Dr. Bhyrappa was honoured on the occasion. Writer and former Akashavani, Mysuru, Director Dr. M.S. Vijaya Haran delivered the felicitation address.

Sadvidya Educational Institutions Hon. Secretary Prof. M.S.K. Narahari Babu, Vice-President C.R. Nagaraj, Secretary Prof. K.S. Hiriyanna, District Kannada Sahitya Parishat President Maddikere Gopal, Social worker K. Raghuram Vajpayee and others were present.

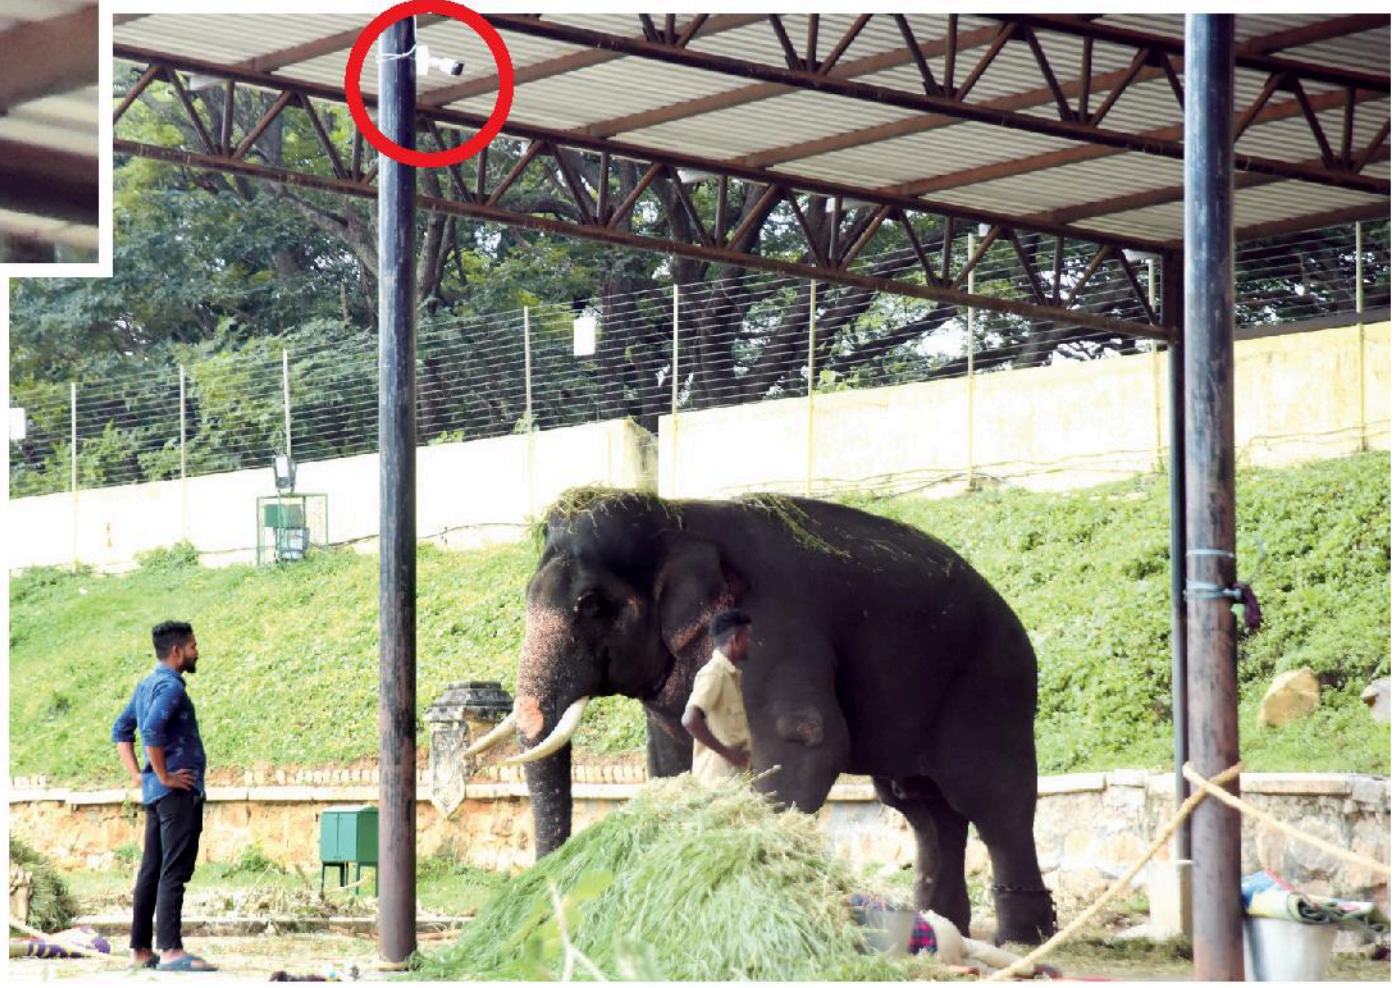
Dasara jumbos inside Palace under CCTV vigil

Surveillance to prevent mischief-mongers from teasing and turning the elephants violent



By M.T. Yogesh Kumar

A grand Dasara means thousands of tourists trooping into the Mysore Palace and many among them would want to see the elephants, the mainstay of the festivities.

To ensure that the nine elephants are safe at their designated place inside the Palace, over eight CCTV cameras have been installed and once the second batch of elephants comes, more cameras will be installed. One cannot just mess up with the elephants as they are under constant vigil.

Apart from a sort of control room that has been set up to monitor the jumbos with a display screen where all the eight camera visuals can be seen, the higher officers can access the visuals on their mobile phones. They can see the happenings of the elephant camp round-the-clock.

Also, the footage is continuously recorded and batteries have been connected if there is any disruption in power. The footage will be stored for one month and will be submitted to any audit.

While other elephants who have their own role to play in the festivities are tied in a row, Abhimanyu, who has the responsibility of carrying the 750-kg Golden Howdah, is tethered separately and he has a female companion in the form of Chaitra.

The reason for Abhimanyu being separated from the rest is that almost all the tourists who come near the Palace elephant enclosure ask for a glimpse of the Howdah elephant.

"Sometimes it turns out to be a nuisance as all of them want to see Abhimanyu. Among the crowd might be mischief-mongers, you will never know. Some of them will surely tease and irritate the elephants and seeing unfamiliar humans close to them, the jumbos will turn violent. We do not want to agitate the elephants and we want to let them be by themselves without any disturbance. The CCTV cameras have been installed for this very purpose," Deputy Conservator of Forests (Wildlife) Dr. V. Karikalan told Star of Mysore.

"Usually, curious visitors and tourists go very close to the elephants that are very sensitive and only obey their Mahout and Kavadis. This being the case, any unfamiliar person will aggravate the elephants and they might react in an unruly manner. Also, a Mahout and Kavadi cannot constantly be with the elephants as they have other duties to attend to. In such a situation, these cameras will help us keep an eye on elephants," he said.

In previous years, the Forest Department has got complaints from the Mahouts and other elephant caretakers that some people venture close to the elephants and indulge in mischievous behaviour. That is why this watch, he added. Tourists might also try and click selfies with the elephants and this might cause the elephants to go out of control.

Cameras inside storeroom

Cameras have also been installed in the storeroom where the foodgrains, pulses and other daily diet essentials are stored along with elephant medicines. This is to prevent any kind of sabotage and to monitor who will enter and exit the rooms, what time the food is cooked and fed to the elephants and whether the staff are sticking to the diet regime as prescribed by the veterinarian.

As Dasara nears, the training of elephants will intensify and naturally, the food intake will also increase. "This surveillance system will come in handy to keep a close watch on all the activities in the elephant section. The last two years were low-key Dasara where the procession was held within the Palace and there was no entry to the public. This year, the scenario is different and we are taking enough precautions," the DCF added.

Dr. M.S. Vishveshwara:

A Noble Soul, Gone Forever !

The week that has gone by has been a very painful one for the entire medical fraternity of our city and its surroundings. It has taken away from our midst Dr. M.S. Vishveshwara, a very noble soul who as a practicing Oncologist, had tirelessly served suffering humanity for well over three decades, ever since he became a doctor.

He had in him all the qualities that people expect to see in a doctor if he or she has to do justice to being called a worthy member of the medical profession. And, above all, being an Oncologist, he had in him a rare kind of sensitivity and empathy to the pain and agony that most of his patients and their relatives invariably went through, while battling what has rightly been called as the 'Emperor of all maladies.'

Yes, accepting the diagnosis of cancer itself is a very unnerving and almost earth-shattering experience for anyone who is diagnosed with it, mind you, even if it comes with the reassurance that it is of the curable kind. And, if it turns out to be of an uncurable kind as it very often happens, one of the very few pillars of strength that one can lean on for support, besides one's immediate family members, is a caring and understanding doctor who is endowed with a unusually large measure of patience and concern for the patient. That is exactly the kind of person that Dr. Vishveshwara was.

I knew him as a very close friend over exactly thirty-one years, ever since he joined the then newly started Bharath Cancer Hospital, which was the only facility for the treatment of cancer in our city. In fact, it was he who walked into my house as an unknown person and after introducing himself as an Oncologist, told me about the hospital he was attached to and the services available there.

After that, there was no looking back for him from his goal post. He remained loyal to the institution down to his last breath and it will not be an overstatement if I say that it was this loyalty that helped it to grow, especially in its early years, much before it saw tie-ups with bigger names and bigger players in the field of Oncology. Because I found his hospital to be the best referral place for all my cancer patients who simply could not afford the cost and bother of seeking treatment at much bigger hospitals outside Mysuru, I used to regularly seek his help in getting them treated.

Dr. M.S. Vishveshwara

Very often, a good many of them could ill afford even the low-cost treatment that was available there, due to their abject poverty and that was when I would never hesitate to request my friend to somehow ensure that, money or no money, they got their treatment on time. And, he never once, failed to fulfil my request, reassuring me that he would do it, although I could never fathom how he did it!

This is not just my experience, because all my other doctor friends too have over the years, told me the same story of his benevolence and concern for the poor. Qualities like these have earned Dr. Vishveshwara a very special and affectionate place in the hearts of all his patients, whose lives his healing hands have touched over the years.

Even in all other spheres of activity that the doctors and the many philanthropic organisations of Mysuru were involved in, Dr. Vishveshwara would most willingly involve himself.

Dr. C. Umesh Kamath, the founding architect of Geeth Gaatha Chal, the well-known music programme of doctors, while talking to me yesterday, fondly recalled how Dr. Vishveshwara was the person who welcomed the gathering at the very first programme, more than twenty years ago. Interestingly, this was a role that got reserved for him every year over all the years, till he had to miss it this year because of his ill health. He had even performed a few times in the programme along with his daughter Dr. Radhika and along with his wife Smt. Jalaja, the family used to regularly host rehearsal sessions in their house which even I have attended with my family.

When the managements of all the private hospitals in and around Mysuru decided to come together under the banner of MAHAN (The Mysore Association of Hospitals, Nursing Homes and Diagnostic Centres) seven years ago, Dr. Vishveshwara was constantly at the forefront of activity and he continued to remain there till the very end of his life, never once aspiring to be in the leadership of the organisation.

My friend Dr. B.N. Rajeeva, the Founder-Secretary of MAHAN, recalled how Dr. Vishveshwara, who was his schoolmate, was the person who way back in the year 2010 put forward the seedling idea of forming an association of private hospitals in our city. With the formation of MAHAN, his idea took root and has now become the sprawling tree that shelters private medical care in and around our city.

Time passes and people too pass away, sometimes at some very untimely moments, but with their good work, they leave behind lasting memories which we cherish, although with a sense of pain and anguish. Rest in peace, dear friend. With your love, laughter and goodness, you have left us all feeling proud of you!

On Aug. 17 morning, Puttaiah's neighbours noticed that Puttaiah was not to be seen as his usual routine. He daily opened the main door of his house without fail. The neighbours immediately informed Puttaiah's son Naveen who resides in K.S. Layout.

As the front door was locked, Naveen entered through the back door and found his father in a pool of blood in the bedroom and called the Police. The Police later scanned the CCTV footage from the neighbouring areas and zeroed in on Jayanth on Aug. 20. From the beginning, the Police knew it was an insider's job.

According to Anoop A. Shetty, DCP (Bengaluru Northeast), Jayanth had visited Puttaiah's house on Aug. 16 and fought with him for a share in the property. He also demanded Puttaiah to stand as a surety for the bank loan to start his business. As Puttaiah turned down both his demands, Jayanth teamed up with his friend to kill his grandfather.

"During interrogation, Jayanth that he and Yaseen first attacked Puttaiah before smothering him with a pillow. To make it look like murder for gain, they hid Puttaiah's finger rings in the wardrobe," the DCP told reporters.

Man arrested for blackmail

In the second case, the Bengaluru Northeast division of Cybercrime Police headed by Inspector Santosh Ram and his team arrested 30-year-old V. Mahesh for recording private moments of his relatives & friends on spycam and later blackmailing them for sexual favours.

Mahesh, a native of T. Narasipur and an employee of a private firm, used to visit the houses of his relatives and friends and place the USB-type camera in their bedrooms and bathrooms. The Police have recovered a laptop, memory cards and USB charger-type hidden camera from him and he has been charged under the provisions of the Information Technology Act and with IPC Sections for blackmail and sexual harassment.

One of the victims had lodged a complaint with the Cybercrime Police in this regard. The victim told the Police that a person, in possession of her private moments, was seeking sexual favours and blackmailed her and threatened to release the recorded video clips on social media.

The Police also found many other video clips recorded by the accused with which he was blackmailing the victims. "No one had filed complaints due to social stigma. The accused would only target his relatives and friends. He would visit their houses often and place the USB in the bedroom and bathroom to record the videos. Later, he would contact the victims on their social media accounts with fake identities and blackmail them," DCP Anoop A. Shetty told reporters.

Nagawala poised to be a 'Zero Sanitary Waste GP'

Mysuru, Aug. 21 (BCT)- Sanitary waste management has been the least explored and debated of all the streams of solid waste that are generated at the household level and its disposal is a huge problem that needs to be tackled on an urgent basis.

In Mysuru, Nagawala Gram Panchayat (GP) of Yelwal hobli in Chamundeshwari Constituency is on the way to becoming a 'Zero Sanitary Waste Gram Panchayat' as the GP has already taken steps for its women to use sanitary cups and eco-friendly cloth pads that do not have plastic in them.

Mysuru Zilla Panchayat (ZP), Taluk Panchayat (TP) is organising a programme on Aug. 23 at Nagawala where the 'Zero Sanitary Waste GP' programme will be inaugurated by MLA G.T. Devegowda and presided over by GP President C. Narendra.

MP Pratap Simha, Additional Chief Secretary of Panchayat Raj and Rural Development Uma Mahadevan, Director of Abdul Nazir Sab State Institute of Rural Development and Panchayat Raj Lakshmi Priya, ZP CEO B.R. Poornima and AC Kamala Bai will be the chief guests.

The programme will be steered by Hasiru Dala, a non-profit organisation working for waste pickers and informal waste collectors in select cities of Karnataka. Hasiru Dala also manages some of the dry waste collection centres and a zero-waste management facility of the MCC.

Studies have shown that one sanitary pad could take from 500 to 800 years to decompose as the plastic used is not bio-degradable, and can lead to health and environmental hazards. Disposal of used single-use sanitary pads in a systematic way is difficult and throwing them in open areas causes infections.

To reduce these single-use sanitary napkin usage, Hasiru Dala has been continuously working on a sustainable menstruation practice where they provide training to school, college girls, women groups in rural and urban areas of Mysuru, women employees of KSOU and also to women Police personnel.

Three years of groundwork

Under 'Zero Sanitary Waste GP', girls between 12 and 21 years and women aged 22-45 years from 5 villages that come under Nagawala GP will be trained to use cloth pads and reusable menstrual cups to stop usage of single-use sanitary pads.

Speaking to SOM, R. Anil Kumar, Director of Hasiru Dala Mysuru Division, said that for the last 3 years they have been creating awareness of sustainable menstruation practice both in Mysuru city and villages around the city. "We have done a lot of groundwork as part of the pilot project in Keelanapura, Siddalingapura, Gungral Chatra, Jayapura and Nagawala. We have realised that despite initial reservations, thanks to social taboo on menstruation, women were open to using reusable menstrual cups and cloth pads," he said.

Hasiru Dala has conducted many surveys in villages and the women gynaecologists in the team and women volunteers have taken Anganwadi and ASHA workers into confidence and have spoken to women in each household and made them aware of the harmful effects of plastic-based sanitary pads and were convinced about menstrual cups that can be used with ease and convenience up to 10 years.

As part of the groundwork, WhatsApp groups were created to clear the doubts of women about menstrual cups.

Anganwadi and ASHA workers involved

"Due to the groundwork by women gynaecologists and volunteers, there is acceptance of eco-friendly solutions and particularly impressed are Anganwadi and ASHA workers. Also, many women Panchayat members and Presidents too have opted for sustainable solutions. We thought that by choosing Nagawala Gram Panchayat, we will go for a targeted campaign to make the village 'Zero Sanitary Waste Gram Panchayat' instead of spreading out to many villages," Anil Kumar revealed.

"Once the inauguration is over, we will go step-by-step in creating awareness in all the five villages that come under Nagawala where there are over 2,000 women in the target group and our volunteers and women gynaecologists will train them in hygiene and the bad effects of the plastic-based sanitary pads. After three to four months, we will check the effectiveness of the campaign to see the percentage of use of sustainable menstruation and ascertain if there are any problems. All the issues will be addressed by our gynaecologists and women volunteers," he added.

Two get lifer for killing friend over Rs. 20,000 loan in 2017

Mysuru, Aug. 21 (SBD&BCT)- The Seventh Additional District and Sessions Court in Mysuru has sentenced two persons to life imprisonment on charges of murdering their friend in 2017 at Vijayanagar Fourth Stage. Judge K. Doddegowda found the accused guilty and pronounced the judgement.

Jayaram, 34, son of Rajalingashetty of Belawadi village was murdered five years ago by his friends Anil Kumar and Mahesh. The third accused in the case Satish of Vidyaranyapuram was acquitted as there was no evidence to prove him guilty.

The murder had taken place over the issue of a loan where Jayaram had given Rs. 20,000 to Anil Kumar and Mahesh. Jayaram of Belawadi, who had rented a house at Hootagalli, Anil Kumar of K.T. Street and Mahesh of Meghalakoppalu were friends and were working in a car showroom on the city outskirts.

Loan caused the rift

Anil Kumar had borrowed a loan of Rs. 20,000 from Jayaram and had not returned it on time. A fight broke out between them when Jayaram demanded Anil Kumar to return his money. The issue also led to frequent arguments both at the workplace and at the place where the three friends would meet after work.

With no other go, Jayaram complained to the showroom owner who called Anil Kumar to his workplace and advised him to settle the money and be friends again. But enraged over this, Anil Kumar plotted to kill Jayaram. He involved Mahesh and Satish in the plan and fixed May 27, 2017, as the date of plan execution.

Plan executed on May 27, 2017

On that day, the friends finished work and Jayaram was getting ready to go home on his bike along with Satish. Mahesh, meanwhile, asked Jayaram if he could drop him on the way. Jayaram agreed and he, Satish and Mahesh travelled in one bike from the car showroom and reached Vijayanagar Fourth Stage High Tension Double Road at 8.30 pm.

As Mahesh and Anil Kumar had planned earlier, Mahesh asked Jayaram to stop his bike at a designated place to urinate. Anil Kumar lay in wait at the place. Unaware of the plan, Jayaram stopped the bike. Suddenly, Anil Kumar appeared from the bushes with a dagger and stabbed Jayaram. The act was facilitated by Mahesh who pushed Jayaram from the bike.

The third accused flees

Jayaram fell from the bike and Anil Kumar repeatedly stabbed him. Seeing blood and Jayaram being mercilessly attacked, Satish, who had accompanied Jayaram and Mahesh from the car showroom, fled the scene and disappeared into the darkness. Later, Anil Kumar sat on Jayaram's stomach and repeatedly stabbed him on the chest, throat and face while Mahesh stood silently and watched.

A murder case was registered in the Vijayanagar Police Station. But Satish did not report the incident to the Police as he felt threatened. The then Police Inspector Guruprasad led the investigation and collected clues on all vehicles passing through the road on that night at about 8.30.

Evidence collected

He used mobile tower location dump data and zeroed in on certain mobile numbers that were in close proximity to Jayaram's mobile location. Later, after Guruprasad was transferred, Inspector P.N. Anil Kumar pursued the case and identified the accused. After arrest and interrogation, a charge-sheet was submitted to the Court against Anil Kumar, Mahesh and Satish.

While the Court sentenced Anil Kumar and Mahesh to life imprisonment, it acquitted Satish as there was no suitable evidence to prove his complicity. The Police had stated in the charge-sheet that Satish had helped Anil Kumar and Mahesh to escape on his bike.

The Court also imposed a fine of Rs. 37,000 each on the convicted. Public Prosecutor K. Nagaraj had argued for the State.

Debutant Mahendra shows he too can carry Ambari

Carries 550 kg weight on Jumboo Savari route

Mysuru, Aug. 21 (MTY&KS)- On the third day of weight training for Dasara elephants yesterday, Mahendra, who will be participating in Jumboo Savari for the first time this year, carried a total weight of 550 kg and walked majestically on the Jumboo Savari route, assuring the Forest Department officials that he could be the future Howdah Elephant.

Housed in Mathigodu Elephant Camp, 39-year-old Mahendra arrived to Mysuru along with eight other elephants in the first batch. Yesterday at about 7.45 am, Gaadhi Namdah weighing 250 kg was fastened on the back of Mahendra near Kodi Someshwara Temple in the palace premises. A cradle like structure was then tied on top of Gaadhi Namdah and sand bags weighing 300 kg were placed inside the cradle making the total weight of 550 kg.

Mahendra, along with other eight Dasara elephants including Howdah Elephant Abhimanyu came out of the Palace through Balarama Gate and passed via K.R. Circle, Sayyaji Rao Road, old RMC Circle, Highway Circle and reached the Torchlight Parade Grounds by covering a distance of 5 kms in one hour and fifteen minutes.

Mahendra, who had created havoc in Ramanagar, was captured four years ago and was housed in Mathigodu Elephant Camp where he was disciplined.

Those who speak about honesty are seen as mad people: Justice Santosh Hegde

Mysuru, Aug. 21 (MTY&KS)- Society is responsible for the present corruption and such conditions in the State and National level, regretted former Karnataka Lokayukta Justice N. Santosh Hegde.

He was speaking after inaugurating the D. Devaraj Urs birth anniversary celebration and 'Ursu Adarsha Bhushana' award presentation function organised by D. Devaraj Urs Prathime Pratishtapana Samithi at University of Mysore's Rani Bahadur auditorium yesterday.

"In the early days, people used to stay away from those who had come out of jail. This had caused fear to commit crime. But now, those who come out of jail are garlanded and taken in a procession. There is no reward for honesty and those who speak about honesty are seen as mad people. It is only greed which is seeing development," regretted former Karnataka Lokayukta Justice.

Pointing out that society cannot be changed even through law, Santosh Hegde said that neighbouring country China hangs those accused in corruption after the allegations are proved, but in India, it is only seven years imprisonment. "Honesty should be first instilled among us and it should reach our future generations. We should never expect the fruit for ourselves and we should build a better society for the future generations," he added.

On the occasion, MLC A.H. Vishwanath and MyLAC Chairman Raghu R. Kautilya were presented with 'Ursu Adarsha Bhushana' awards. MLA Tanveer Sait, who was also selected for the award could not make it due to illness.

Former Speaker K.R. Ramesh Kumar, who too spoke, said that during his tenure as a Speaker, he had to take some tough decisions and had to disqualify A.H. Vishwanath.

"But now I am felicitating him. Though myself and Vishwanath met each other many times since then, he (Vishwanath) never became angry on me. We both are the disciples of D. Devaraj Urs, hence Vishwanath did not speak anything against me," he said.

Varsity Vice-Chancellor Prof. G. Hemantha Kumar presided. Samithi Hon. President M. Chandrashekar, President Zakir Hussain, Congress leader N.M. Naveen Kumar and others were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Heartstring

Pronunciation: HAHRT-string.
Meaning: Heartstring is used, usually in the plural, to refer to someone's deepest emotions or affections.
Origin: Before a love song could tug at your heartstrings, the job was more likely to be accomplished by a surgeon: the word heartstring used to refer to a nerve believed to sustain the heart. You might recognise the word's second syllable in hamstring, which refers to both a group of tendons at the back of the knee and to any of three muscles at the backs of the upper legs. It's also apparent in a rare dialect term for the Achilles tendon: heel string. And in light of these terms, it's not surprising to know that string itself was at one time used independently to refer to bodily cords like tendons and ligaments.
Example: "You'll laugh, you'll cry, you'll be amazed at the talent on stage. These six actresses definitely know how to effortlessly make you chuckle while also tugging at your heartstrings." — Paul Lockwood

THE ODD WORD

Halitosis
Bad breath.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Hit the hay

Meaning: When you say you are going to 'Hit the hay' you mean that you are going to bed.
Origin: The term 'Hit the hay' is believed to have originated in 1903, when The Oakland Tribune reported that "Sam Berger, the Olympic heavyweight...was sleepy and he announced that 'he was going to hit the hay.'"
Example: "I'm exhausted. Time to hit the hay."

QUOTE BOX

Alimony is like buying hay for a dead horse. —Groucho Marx
